CHARLES-TOWN: Printed by PETER TIMOTHY, Printer to the Honourable the COMMONS HOUSE of ASSEMBLY, at his Office on the BAY, near the Exchange.

To the FRIENDS of the GOOD OLD CAUSE.

My Countrymen and Brothers,

AS we are just on the Eve of an Election, for a Member to represent us in the Assembly of this Province; it is to be hoped that every one of you, who hath a Right to vote for the Parish of St. Michael, will attend the Poll on Tuesday, or Wednesday next, in order to give such Vote, for the Person that he shall think the most eligible: But, that this may be done with the utmost Propriety, it is highly necessary, that you should be acquainted with the Merits and Demerits, of those who are proposed as Candidates for your Suffrage; and this is the Subject of the present Letter.

I have hitherto heard but of two Gentlemen who intend to stand the Contest; and, as far as I am acquainted with them, I am inclined to believe, they are both Men of Integrity. But that is not ALL which should be sought for.—Our Situation at present is extremely critical—We have a Dispute, of a very serious Nature, with His Majesty's Council, who have assumed to themselves, the Right of imprisoning your Fellow-Subjects whenever they shall fancy it proper—They have claimed likewise, a Right to direct us in the framing of Money-Bills; and have so successfully opposed the passing of any Tax-Bill, that the Public Creditors have been kept out of their just Demands for several Years last past: Luckily for this Province, an Expedient has been fallen on, which will frustrate their accursed Plan of Opposition—tend to shew them how insignificant they now are—and have the happy Effect of restoring Public Tranquility: But it is from the Attention to this Fact, you are to learn, that you have no Resource left but in your own Representatives.—Can you then, my Countrymen, be TOO CAUTIOUS in electing those who are to serve you in the Assembly? or be TOO CERTAIN, that they are Men from whose Connections, and from whose Principles, you have Reason to expect the greatest Assistance—Men, who will act for you, because they love you; and who have Reason to love you, because they were born in the Province with you, and have been educated in the Love of FREEDOM—Men, whose ALL center in this Colony, and who can have no Object in View but the Good of their Fellow Citizens—Men, who will serve you freely and heartily, thinking as highly as you do of the GOOD OLD CAUSE OF LIBERTY.

Speaking for myself, it is totally immaterial to me, whom you choose; for I am just quitting Society, and can be but little affected by the Choice. But I own, I feel for you, I feel for Posterity; and therefore I confess, I suffer somewhat, when I understand, that great Opposition is likely to be made to our young Countryman, in Favour too of a Gentleman who, from the Place of his Education, and his known political Principles, is by no Means as eligible as the other.——I do not profess the Honour of a personal Acquaintance with Mr. Lynch, junior; but I know a great Deal of the Father, whom I pronounce to be a downright honest Soul; and as I am a plain unlettered Man, and not acquainted with any Thing but what is natural and common, I have always found, that a good Twig might ever be procured from a good Tree.——Besides, I am well informed, by those on whom I can implicitly rely, that the Advantages of Knowledge and Understanding, are possessed in so eminent a Degree by the young Gentleman, that they can be equalled by nothing but by his Integrity—that his Wisdom will direct him to form Plans for the PUBLIC GOOD, and that his Virtue will induce him to carry them into Execution. We all know too, that he has no Connections but what are in this Province, and therefore he can have no Compliments to pay to those of a different Nation, or any other Interest than GENERAL PUBLIC GOOD. In short, he is a CAROLINIAN; and there are no People so proper to take Care of you as the Natives of the Province;—they are the natural Guardians of the Place;—they neither will, nor dare they betray you;—and they must be treacherous to their own Feelings, if they do not DEFEND the Cause of Freedom. I hope you will not imagine, that whilst I am paying the just Dues to our young Countryman, I mean to impeach the Integrity of the other—nothing is farther from my Thoughts;—in private Life I believe he has much Virtue: But his Ideas of Right and Wrong in POLITICS, may be, nay, I am very confident they are, very different from ours. He may think, as most of his Countrymen do, that the Parliament of Great-Britain have a Right to TAX AMERICA; and God forbid, that such a Man should have the Power of giving away our Property! for, should his Opinion be as I suppose it is, he must (to act consistently) submit to the REVENUE LAWS, and indeed to every other Law which may be made by the British Legislature, however oppressive to the People of this Province, or however derogatory to the Rights of Humanity.—And should he do so, I would be glad to know, which of you could complain, for his having ENSLAVED you, in Conformity to his Principles?

In answer to this, it has been said, and may therefore be said again, that he is but One, that he can do no Harm, and that as this is a commercial Town, and he acquainted with mercantile Transactions, he may be of Service.—But to this I must beg Leave to say, that there is only one sure Way to prevent him doing any Harm, and that is, by putting it out of his Power. The Objection too "that he can do no Harm" is false;—for we know, that the greatest Question which was ever agitated in the British Senate was carried but by ONE VOTE—I mean the Revolution.—A Question of equal Importance to us may, before long, be debated in our Senate; and if it should be carried against you by ONE VOTE, you will have Reason to curse your own Folly, so long as you live—And surely, my Countrymen, you will not hazard so much, for the Chance of having a tolerable Merchant added to the Number of your Representatives, when you have already three Gentlemen, who are really able, substantial and extensive Traders, and equal to every commercial Question.

One Sentence more, and then proceed to Election.—You are soon, my Countrymen, to have a Scot Governor: If you have a Scot Assembly, with the present hopeful Council, the Lord have Mercy upon you! In my Conscience, I do believe, it would be worse for this Province than it was for Sodom and Gomorrah; at least I am so persuaded of it, that, should such a Period arrive, old, and fond as I really am of my native Country, I would take my Children with me, and seek out some far distant Land, where Freedom resides, and is VALUED.

THE CRAFTSMAN.

Extract of a Letter from ST. THOMAS'S PARISH, dated April 2,

" ——— Pray, my dear Friend, let me know per Bearer, how you imagine the Solicitation for the intended Sc—h Member will succeed.— Two Natives of respectable Characters making Interest at these Times, from House to House, for a Man to represent them, whose political Principles are well known, and which I am sure they did not heretofore (however suddenly they may have been converted) approve of, is certainly a Phænomenon that every American (who hears of it) must stare at.—Are the unsuspected Lovers of Freedom, of true English Freedom, so scarce amongst you, or grown so tired or lazy, that not one proper Person can be found, who will give himself the Trouble to defend it? Are you therefore under the fatal Necessity of leaving that most valuable Object to worse than—Chance? For my Part, I must candidly confess, I always thought the Town should be represented by Gentlemen in Trade: But then, if no such Person, whose political Principles are indubitable, will offer, can any Thing but Perverseness prevent you from accepting of a Native of the Country, whose Education, Abilities, and Connexion, the more they are enquired into, the more they must endear him to you, and engage your Confidence; merely, forsooth, because he is not in Trade, or a Resident in Town? I may fairly ask, if there ever has been an Assembly, where there have not been many Examples of Town Gentlemen's representing Country Parishes? and will you be so churlish, so impolitic, as upon no Occasion, ever so pressing, to admit of a Country Gentleman, however unexceptionable, to represent you? Will this Conduct encrease the Weight and Influence of Charles-Town think you? or, will it not rather be the Occasion of diminishing it? One would think the Difference between the Interest of Town and Country, by such a Conduct, must be very great indeed: But, be that as it will, is it not merely local, and of an inferior Nature to that of the Whole of the Province in general? Shall then a merely local, occasional Interest, be brought into Competition with the grand, continual, universal, and most essential Interest of the Colony? I trow not.——One of the Solicitors, I heard, was told, by a substantial House-keeper, that if he would serve, he would with Pleasure give him his Vote, but begged to be excused from his Recommendation—A proper Answer this—I wish it had had its Effect.

" Let the real Lovers of Freedom who are not (like Children) tired (as it were, with a Play Thing) of defending it, only recollect the Number, Education and Nature of the Opposers we have to contend with—where and where only they crowd themselves—and consider who watch for, promote, and get most by, our foolish Divisions, &c. &c. what Undertream has occasioned us to be carried contrary to the manifest Current of our Sister Colonies; and if they can but once be brought to reflect, like Men of Sense and Prudence on these Points, and the present very critical Situation of the Province, there will be very little Danger, in my Opinion, to fear the Event of next Wednesday.

" It may perhaps be thought prudent by some, to wheel about, and, as Times go, make a Friend at Court.—Whoever thinks so, let him act accordingly—for my Part, till the Sc—h have left that manifest glaring national Partiality, which they on all Occasions shew for each other; till they understand better, and demonstratively make it evident, that they LOVE better those Liberties, which Englishmen have a Right to, and their Descendants the Sons of America equally claim as theirs, and are now struggling very hard for, let them make Dupes of whom they can of my Countrymen, I will never give them an Opportunity to grin in their Sleeves, by making a Puppet of me.—However angry we may be with one another, ought we not to reserve at least so much Wit in our Anger, as not to put it in the Power of Men, who we have Reason to think have not the same constitutional Feelings with ourselves (and who, notwithstanding any Grimace, love both Sides equally alike, that is, perhaps not at all) to take any political Advantage of us, and thereby throw the casting Weight into that Scale, where the Ministry most earnestly wish to have it."—

CHARLES-TOWN, April 4.

LAST Saturday put into this Port, under Jury-Masts, the Snow Nancy, John Thrasher Master, out 14 Weeks from Newcastle bound for Grenada, having lost both her Masts near Madera, about 7 Weeks since.

The same Day, the Ship Newmarket, Captain Haggey, bound for London, unfortunately got ashore on the Lower-Middle, in going down towards the Bar; but, we hear, has sustained little or no Damage, being soon lightened and got off.

According to an Account kept by Mr. Joseph Ball, Clerk of the Lower Market, from the 4th of October last to this Day (Six Months) there have been sold in that Market,

- 436 Beeves
- 539 Calves
- 735 Sheep
- 423 Lambs
- 777 Hogs
- 3437 Shoots, and
- 226 Deer.

Mr. WILLIAM TRUBLER, Treasurer,
PETER BOUNETHEAU, Esq; Secretary,
Mr. BENJAMIN LEGARE, } Stewards.
Mr. RICHARD COLE, }

An Upper Creek Indian, called the Mad Turkey, said to be of some Consequence in his Nation, and always friendly to the English, was, on Tuesday the 22d past, killed in Augusta, by one Thomas Fea, who immediately made his Escape.—The Mad Turkey had come to Augusta on the friendly Errand of conducting some Traders and Pack-horses from the Upper Creeks, that they might not be hurt by the Lower. Fea had been driven off his Settlement when the Creeks first began their Outrages, and meeting with the Mad Turkey at Augusta, got him to drink with him, when he took the Opportunity to kill him with a Bar of Iron.

Last Thursday Night died Mr. Algernon Wilson, of St. Paul's Parish.

Lord Viscount Pitt, Son to the Earl of Chatham, it is said, was to embark from England, some Time in February, for North-America, to make the Tour of the British Colonies on this Continent.

Last Thursday put in, in very great Distress, but then got no farther than Five-Fathom Hole, from whence she came up to Town Yesterday, the Ship Sally, of and for London, from Jamaica, Isaac Burton, Master, having been ashore upon Cape-Florida 42 Hours, and been obliged to throw about 100 Hogsheads of her Cargo of Rum and Sugar overboard, before she could be got off. We have not yet obtained further Particulars, than that it was on the 22d of March the Ship went ashore.

The same Day arrived here the Diligence Packet-Boat, under the Command of Mr. John Fargie, from Jamaica and Pensacola.

The ELECTION of a Member for St. Michael's Parish, comes on TO-MORROW MORNING, Ten o'Clock.

Price of RICE 52/6d. per 100lb.

Quantity exported 51,641 Tierces—There may be yet in the Province as much more.
